Biographical Sketch

Sgt. 1st Class Dan Moesch is a helicopter mechanic supervisor serving as demonstration parachutist with the Gold Demonstration Team.

He began his career in aviation when he enlisted into the Army in 1990. He has served tours of duty in Fort Belvoir, Virginia, Fort Carson, Colorado, Korea and Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

He spent three years as a member of the Team's aviation section, fulfilling the duties of flight engineer. After watching jumpers exit the aircraft thousands of times, Moesch took up skydiving himself. He attended the 2001 Golden Knight Assessment and Selection program and is now enjoying his second season as a demonstration parachutist.

Moesch has completed more than 1,100 freefall parachute jumps. Other than skydiving Moesch enjoys running and motorcycles.
